GS&F REPORTS PRO BONO ACTIVITY FOR FIRST HALF OF 2009

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (October 10, 2009) –At GS&F, we have a long history of giving back to the local community by helping non- profit agencies with marketing needs on a pro bono or reduced fee basis. Here is a list of the community non-profits that we have helped from January 1 through June 30, 2009:

American Cancer Society

Band Against MS

Boy Scouts of Middle Tennessee

Kidney Walk

McNeilly Center for Children

Monroe Harding

MS Society of Middle Tennessee

Music City Tennis Invitational benefiting the Monroe Carell Jr. Children’s Hospital at Vanderbilt

Nashville Area Chapter of the American Red Cross

Oasis Center

GS&F has donated a total of 810 hours – the equivalent to over $99,000 in services rendered. “It is a pleasure to support the local non-profit community in and around Middle Tennessee with their marketing activities,” said Jeff Lipscomb, president at GS&F. “We have supported these organizations and others for the 31 years that we have been in business. We will continue to offer services as we are able in the months and years to come.”
